Jeff Phillips, Colored, Shot and Killed by Charles Boughner, Deputy Marshal

by Charles Boughner, Deputy Marshal of Chester.

A shooting affair which resulted in the death of Jeff Phillips, colored, at the hands of Ches. Boughner, Deputy Marshal of Chester, took place on the river shore in front of that place on Tuesday afternoon, about four o'clock. At the time of the shooting Phillips was in company with Alex. Green and Chas. While, both colored, who, with thether witnessed the affair. The deceased was about twenty-five years of age and lived in East Maysville. The examining trial is in progress to-day before Mayor Dieterich, of Chester.

An inquest was held over the remains Tuesday afternoon by Coroner Cockerlli and the testimony developed was in substance as follows:

Brustor, Aug. 12—Notwithstending the stimid and cautious verdict of the Jury regarding the sallor who died here of "a suspicious disease resembling cholers," few members of the medical profession doubt-selfle. The restrict was assimed at prevening fright. Nevertheless much alarm exists. Prognores street, where the salior died, is a densely crowded neighborhood adjoining the harbor. It lies on a low level, and the houses are old and dispulsade. The house are of the medical profession of the harbors are of the medical particular to stroughold of sanitation. It seems with bouses of the past generation. Its ewerse is allowed to stream out into public channels. Its lower classes are berded together in dwellings referring with effits. Betelolisant development of the most congreted sections of the city. This gignantic sewage. Closed drains are only portially adopted, and the sewage of some eighty thousand population is permitted to flow in an open stream through some of the most congretel sections of the city. This gignantic feeling of alarm with be felt in a modified degree et all saports which have commercial relations with this city.
